DOMINION ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

P.C. No. 753.

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.

MONDAY, the 30th day of March, 1931.

PRESENT:

THE DEPUTY OF HIS EXCELLENCY THE ADMINISTRATOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by Order in Council P.C. 1142, dated 19th July, 1926, that portion of Legal Subdivision 9, Section 7, Township 15, Range 26, west of the 6th meridian, in the Railway Belt, in the Province of British Columbia, lying outside Lytton Indian Reserve Number 16, was transferred from the Department of the Interior to the Department of Indian Affairs:

And whereas the Minister of the Interior reports that, through error, an area of 5.04 acres, to which the Canadian Pacific Railway Company was entitled as a free grant for right-of-way purposes, was included in this transfer; that the Department of Indian Affairs states that it did not apply for the said right-of-way and that the said Order did not convey it, as a prior right existed in favour of the Company:

Therefore, the Deputy of His Excellency the Administrator in Council, on the recommendation of the Minister of the Interior, is pleased to order that the said Order in Council be and it is hereby amended by the exclusion from the lands thereby transferred the land described hereunder.

Description.—Being in the Fifteenth Township, in the Twenty-sixth Range, west of the sixth meridian, in the Province of British Columbia, and being composed of all that portion of Legal Subdivision Nine of Section Seven of the said township, lying outside the limits of Lytton Indian Reserve No. 16 (Two Mile Creek), which is taken for the right-of-way of the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway, as the said right-of-way is shown edged in red on each side of a plan of survey across the said land and lands adjoining the same, which said plan is signed by James F. Garden, Dominion Land Surveyor and British Columbia Land Surveyor, on the 17th day of October, A.D. 1904, and of record in the Department of the Interior under No. 11195, a duplicate whereof is on record in the Land Registry Office at Kamloops under Number 287; which said portion or parcel of land contains by admeasurement five and four-hundredths acres, more or less.

(Signed) G. G. KEZAR.

Assistant Clerk of the Privy Council.

To the Honourable

The Minister of the Interior.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

(j.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in any business or transaction, or about to do so, which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being so conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, or otherwise deal with the same:

(k.) To take or otherwise acquire and to hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(l.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, licences, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(m.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, rights, and liabilities of this Company, or for any of the purposes of its business, or for any other purposes which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(n.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think it necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business, and in particular mines, mineral claims, land, buildings, easements, machinery, shop fixtures, plant and stock-in-trade, and raw material:

(o.) To construct, improve, maintain, develop, repair, work, manage, carry out, or control any mines, roads, ways, tramways, branches or sidings, bridges, reservoirs, watercourses, wharves, manufacturing, warehouses, electrical works, boarding-houses, boats, shops, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying-out, and control thereof:

(p.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital, and to purchase or pay off any such securities:

(q.) To draw, make, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(r.) To adopt such means of making known the schemes, projects, business, or products of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by printing, publishing, mailing, and distributing, gratis or for gain, newspapers, magazines, and reports, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by granting publications, prizes, rewards, and donations, and by any other mode or means deemed advisable:

(s.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(t.) To lay out land for building purposes, and to build on, improve, let on building leases, advance money to persons building on, and otherwise develop the same in such manner as may seem expedient to advance the Company's interests:

(u.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(v.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(w.) If thought fit, to make the necessary steps to dissolve the Company and to reincorporate its members as a new company for any of the objects specified in this memorandum, or for effecting any other modification in the Company's constitution, and to take such steps as may be necessary to procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any other Province of Canada or elsewhere in the British Empire or in any other foreign country or place:

(x.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

(a.) To engage in and carry on the business of exporters and importers, dealers in silks, curios, jewellery, brassware, chinaware, toys, lamps, hardware, dresses, and other general merchandise, both wholesale and retail, commission agents, advertising agents, and dealers in or manufacturers of any other articles and things of a character similar or analogous to the foregoing or any of them or connected therewith:

(b.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(c.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or elected right to use or any other secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or to otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(d.) Jointly to purchase, take on lease, exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for purposes of its business, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, and stock-in-trade:

(e.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in any business or transaction, or about to do so, which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being so conducted as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell or otherwise, without guarantee, dispose of or deal with the same:

(f.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(g.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the

Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, licences, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(h.) To promote any company or companies for the purposes of purchasing, leasing, or otherwise acquiring all or any of the property, rights, and liabilities of the Company or for any of the purposes of its business, or for any other purposes which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(i.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of sale, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(j.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures charged upon all or any of the property, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase or pay off any such securities:

(k.) To distribute any or all of the property or assets of the Company among the members in specie:

(l.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the whole or any part of the property and rights of the Company, and to accept as consideration therefor shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of any person or company, wheresoever incorporated:

(m.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any part of Canada or in any other country, and to accept rights, concessions, and powers to carry on its business therein, and to give such consideration therefor as the Company shall think fit:

(n.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(o.) If thought fit, to take the necessary steps to dissolve the Company and to reincorporate its members as a new company for any of the objects specified in this memorandum, or for affecting any other modification in the Company's constitution, and to take such steps as may be necessary to procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any other Province of Canada or elsewhere in the British Empire or in any other foreign country or place:

(p.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

In the foregoing paragraphs setting forth the objects of the Company, and unless the context otherwise requires, words importing the singular shall include the plural, and vice versa. Words importing the masculine gender shall include females and words importing persons or companies shall include partnerships, associations, or bodies corporate.

(o.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with same:

(p.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(q.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(r.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital; and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(s.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie; provided that no such distribution shall be made otherwise than by way of dividend, except in the case of the winding-up of the Company; provided further that no dividend in excess of ten per centum per annum shall be declared or paid excepting by a vote of two-thirds in value of the shareholders present in person or by proxy at a special meeting duly called for that purpose, and of which notice shall have been given by registered letter at least fifteen (15) days before the holding thereof:

(t.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business; provided that such remuneration shall not exceed five per cent, unless authorized by a majority of the shareholders at a meeting of the Company duly called for that purpose:

(u.) To do and transact any business or thing within the scope of the "Companies Act" and amending Acts which any individual could lawfully do for the acquisition of gain by any lawful means, and generally to do all such things as are incidental to or which this Company may deem to be conducive to this or any of the foregoing objects.
